

Florida Fair Housing and Community Development Summit Scholarship Application

We are delighted in your interest to attend the Florida Fair Housing and Community Development Summit! We would like for as many to attend as possible and are very aware that due to the current economy, many who would like to attend are unable. This is a scholarship application to attend the Florida Fair Housing and Community Development Summit.

Preference for awarding scholarships will be given on a first come, first served basis to:

- those who would otherwise be unable to attend the Summit due to financial need;
- those who will be able to use the information they learn about in the Summit to further their work as a community leader, a volunteer, or in a professional capacity;
- Florida residents wishing to gain knowledge on fair housing and community development;
- those who have demonstrated a commitment to fair housing and community development;

*In general, no more than two scholarships will be provided to employees of a single agency.

A Scholarship will allow a person to attend the Fair Housing and Community Development Summit and luncheon program at no charge. They will be able to obtain any applicable continuing education credits with a scholarship. Scholarship recipients will be responsible for any hotel / travel charges that may apply.

A decision on scholarship applications will be made by April 7, 2017, where possible. Applications may be considered after that date as long as funds are available.
